

“ We supply specialist staff
to support your team. ”

INTELLIGENT RESOURCING

We can supply specialist staff, across a range of disciplines to support your existing teams. Whether you are short of either capacity or capability, we can help ensure that your team remain on track to deliver your objectives. Whether you need niche data analysts or more generalist project managers we can tap into our networks to find the right match for you.

Service

A key part of our offering is our people. We have been providing on-site specialists to defence clients on both a short and long-term basis for over 10 years to help deliver:

- Cost modelling
- Data analytics
- Project controls
- Project management
- Integrated logistics

We benefit from not being a traditional recruiter, using our experience within the defence sector to provide a readily accessible range of specialist skillsets to source the right people for our clients.

“We supply smart people fast; from niche data skill sets to project managers”
